THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. HELL, PROPRIETOR.

HOLLYWOOD MEMORIAL BAZAAR.

The Bazaar opened at Richmond with great eclat, on Tuesday. The Richmond papers contain glowing accounts of the grand display. We make the following extract from the Examiner:

On the second floor are the tables of the different States. First comes that of Maryland, under charge of Mrs. Thomas H. Ellis and Miss Lizzie Nicholas, assisted by Mrs. William N. Bell, Miss Carrie Barney, Miss Ellen Anderson, Miss Lucy Nimmo, Miss Louisa Randolph, the Misses Triplett, Miss Tucker, Miss Street, Miss Mary Nicholas and Miss Carrie Bently. The table is handsomely decorated and the flag and coat of arms of the State are conspicuously displayed. The table is well supplied with useful and fancy articles, many of them exceedingly pretty.

The ladies of the Maryland table acknowledge the receipt of a large box of exquisite flowers from Mrs. J. Howard McHenry, of Baltimore. A box of the same kind is promised daily by the same generous lady.

They have two autograph letters of General Washington, and a book of autograph letters of Confederate Generals. They have also a sulky plough which was given by Beckham & Co., of this city.

Next to the Maryland table, is that representing the State of North Carolina.—This table is presided over by Mrs. Thomas H. Wynne and Mrs. Higginbotham.—They will be assisted by Mrs. J. W. Shackleford, Mrs. Thomas Howe, Mrs. H. A. Jenkins and Miss Ballou. The table is very handsomely ornamented. Over the centre of it is the coat of arms of the State very handsomely painted by Captain Cox, of this city. The table rests on three barrels marked "Tar," "Pitch," "Turpentine." A very handsome section of a cemetery, with a miniature monument, consisting of a base and broken shaft of marble, was received yesterday. The articles displayed on this table are beautiful and useful, and, no doubt, many purchasers will be found for them.

South Carolina comes next. The table is decorated with palmetto leaves and the coat of arms of the State, a palmetto tree on a green ground, with the motto, "Dum spiro, spero"—very appropriate at this time—in the centre of the decorations. This table is in charge of Mrs. Dr. Gaillard, Mrs. Dr. Wellford and Mrs. Coalter Cabell, assisted by Miss Nannie Norton, Miss Miunie Wellford, Miss Augusta Carleton and Miss Fannie Burwell. Their's is a very handsome table, and they have too many beautiful articles to be enumerated. The palmetto decorations are pretty and characteristic.

The Georgia table, which comes next, is one of the most handsomely arranged in the room. The coat of arms of the State is represented in the decorations. They consist of three pillars, on which are the words, "Moderation," "Justice," "Wisdom," surmounted by an arch of evergreens, the pillars and the arch forming the coat of arms. Mrs. Dr. Haxall and Miss Ritchie, assisted by Miss Mason and Miss Heart, have charge of this table.

The Florida table, in charge of Misses Keach, Spence and Quarles, is next in order. These young ladies have made their table a very beautiful one, and display a number of fancy and useful articles. Mr. Henry Starke has contributed a plow of his own manufacture to the Florida table.

Alabama is next on the list, and the table is under the charge of Mrs. E. F. Semmes and Miss Sallie Tompkins, assisted by Miss Bettie Meredith, the Misses Watson, Miss Davenport, Miss Sherrard and Mrs. Mary Page. These ladies have a very handsome table, and offer many very attractive articles.

The Mississippi table is ornamented with the coat of arms of the State, and contains a tempting array of beautiful articles. It is under the charge of Mrs. James Thomas, Mrs. John Temple and Mrs. John P. Ballard, assisted by the Misses Thomas, Miss Wortham and Miss Fisher.

The Louisiana and Texas tables come next, and are each decorated with the coats of arms of the State. The former is presided over by Mrs. James Lyons, Mrs. N. C. Bruce, Mrs. Barksdale, and Mrs. McDowell, assisted by Miss Rebecca Myers, Miss Ella Seddon, Miss Anna Pellett, and Miss Clark.

The latter by Mrs. N. C. Barton and Miss Pizzini, assisted by Miss Maury, Miss Graves and Miss Thompson.

The Tennessee table is under the charge of Mrs. George Gwathmey and Mrs. Hartwell.

The Missouri and Arkansas table, at the lower end of the room, is handsomely decorated with the flags of the two States.—That of the State of Missouri has a very interesting history. The table is a very handsome one, and is in charge of Mrs. A. D. Townes and Miss Norvell Caskie, assisted by Miss Fanny Halyburton, the Misses Giles and the Misses Palmer.

The arrangements and decoration of the Kentucky tables had not been completed yesterday. It is under the charge of Mrs. J. A. Blair and Mrs. S. W. Hill, assisted by Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. C. D. Hill and the Misses Mayo.

The German table, under the management of Mrs. Capt. Lybrock, was unfinished yesterday, but when completed will be a very pretty one.

The children of the South have one of the very prettiest tables in the room, and filled with any quantity of things to suit the fancy of the little folks. It is under the charge of Mrs. Dr. Barney, Mrs. W. H. Haxall and Mrs. S. W. Walker, assisted by the Misses Stuart and Miss Barney.

Bryan Tyson, the man whom the Post Office Department uses to enable it to dodge the test oath law in the South, has lately received another lot of contracts. He has now obtained fifty-four. He takes all the oaths himself, and then lets the contracts out to all 'rebels" who will take them at five per cent. off the contract price. Mr. Tyson draws out the money and turns over ninety five per cent. to his Southern creditors. It is reported that Postmaster General Randall holds that the Supreme Court decision will justify his action.—Chicago Republican.

The Richmond Examiner says a gentleman reports to us that at Louisa Court-House, last week, Runnicutt told the blacks that if the whites di'd not pay them wages large enough they knew where their property was, and should go and help themselves.

RAIL ROADS.

NOTICE.

OFFICE SEABOARD & ROANOKE R. R. CO., PORTSMOUTH, VA., March 23d, 1867.

IT has been understood by the officers in charge of transportation via the Seaboard Inland Freight Route, that letters addressed to the Railroad Agent at Portsmouth, on the subject of freights, are unanswered, and that in consequence, causes of delay are not explained, and claims for losses and damage unsettled, and as the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company, who are the forwarding agents for the line, are satisfied that these causes of complaint are not due to their Agents, but to the inaccuracy of the mails, in order to test this subject, the Manager of the Seaboard Road requests that whenever persons have written to the undersigned Agent of the Seaboard Road, and after waiting a reasonable time for a reply, have not received it, that they will address him a letter enclosing a duplicate of the letter they had previously addressed to the agent. If this is complied with, and the Manager of the Seaboard Road receives the letter, he gives assurance that it shall be promptly investigated and replied to.

This Air-Line Freight Route

claims to be the most expeditious and direct route, and avoiding to a great extent Marine Insurance, also the cheapest freight route between the

Northern Cities

and

North and South Carolina.

As Freights consigned by the Company's connecting Steamers is forwarded from Portsmouth within twenty-four hours after being landed, there is no reason for delays, and although freights may sometimes be missent, it will in such cases be promptly traced, and if not found will be paid for. The Companies forming this line cannot be responsible for the rapid transportation of freights or charges upon it, unless sent

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophies, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 25, 1867.

THE END.

A communication was recently handed us for publication by a colored man of this city, who requested us with so much eagerness to withhold his name, that we were curious to know the reason. He replied that it would be as much as his life was worth to have it known. He then informed us of the existence of an obligation among the confiscationists, pledging them to the most degrading slavery—a slavery of mind and will—and binding them, in effect, to regard all outside their organization as enemies.

This statement is confirmed by a report in Monday's Washington Republican, of a Republican meeting in that city. One of the delegates, D. R. Parker, there announced that the party was "pledged, before God and man, to support the nominee."

It is not difficult to see where all this will end. It must result in a war of races, when, for their own protection, the respectable whites will have to enter into societies, pledging themselves to employ no colored man for any purpose—no colored barber, or shoemaker, or hackman, or waiter, or blacksmith, or carpenter, or bar tender—and eventually no colored ploughman or reaper. If the Confiscationists desire to bring the misery on the blacks, it is in their power.—Richmond Examiner.

The above article is suggestive. No man can tell what is in the womb of the future. It may be that, in the purposes of Providence, the Southern people are to be called upon to pass through still greater sufferings, yet we are not of those who believe that the great changes, which have so suddenly been wrought in the organism of our political society, must necessarily result in great evil to both races. The destiny of the South, though evidently not in our own hands, if wisely and judiciously managed by our own people, may possibly yet be a good one.—This is a problem yet to be worked out—an experiment yet to be tested.

The colored race have yet to be taught the lesson of self-reliance and its importance. Their true friends will teach them this. They will teach them that freedom does not simply mean the control of their own time and their right to the proceeds of their own labor, but that its highest exercise is independence of thought—the right to investigate every matter in which they are interested, to draw their information from the best sources, and to make up an intelligent, independent judgment upon all matters. Without this, they never can make well qualified voters. Hence, it is a serious injury, and a moral wrong, to induce any man who is not intelligent, whether white or black, to sign a pledge or to take an oath, as we learn is being done extensively among both races, to vote for the nominees of this or that party, or for this or that thing, before the names of the candidates are given, and before the voter has an opportunity of ascertaining the true character of every candidate.

Demagogues are not confined to Richmond. All over the South efforts are being made, by the advocates of secret political associations and by Radical emissaries, to intimidate and alarm ignorant citizens, to force them to follow a particular party.—Colored men, who desire to exercise the rights of freemen, are afraid to express their preferences for this or that party or this or that man or principle, if they should happen to differ from the violent and clamorous. They are threatened, brow-beaten and ridiculed, if they dare to ask information of gentlemen who are known not to be Radical. Respectable colored men, even in Raleigh, are put under the ban and threatened, and are afraid to sign a paper calling for a meeting to be addressed by conservative men. If a colored man makes a speech that is kind and conservative in its tone towards white citizens, known to be good people, though not Radicals, he is abused by some and lectured by others not to talk so conservative or he will be ostracised. They want nothing but violent, abusive and Radical speeches from either black or white. It must be something on the order of the scape-grace Hunnicutt, of Virginia, to suit the bitter, vindictive spirit of our Southern Radicals, such as Hunnicutt and the Holdenites.

Now, the colored people are either freemen or slaves. We insist that they are freemen—that the law makes them free, and that no man or power has the right to enslave them again. They have a right to hear whom they please, to work for whom they please, and to vote for whom they please. Moreover, they have a right to their own opinions, and no man or set of men has a right to brow-beat or threaten, or ridicule them, when they exercise their rights.

We call upon the colored people of North Carolina to maintain their right of opinion, their right of private judgment and their right to hear whom they please, to get information from the best sources within their reach, and to vote for whom they please.—They belong to no man or set of men, white or black, to be led like beasts to water, or to be controlled by threats or ridicule. They know their old and present friends well.—They are to live with them for weal or woe for all time. They can live in peace and harmony, if they will, beloved and esteemed for their good conduct and their kind and friendly spirit toward those who are and have been friendly to them. We warn them against the pretended friendship of those who seek only their votes. Let them sustain those who sustain them—help those who are ready to help them,—and vote for the best men, the most honest, upright men, who are candidates for public favor.

THE "LAND WE LOVE" for May has been received. It commences its third volume in an entirely new and beautiful dress. We must defer notice of its contents until to-morrow.

SOUTHERN RADICALISM.

We have heretofore expressed our gratification at the almost universal condemnation expressed by the Republican press at the North of the spirit and designs of the Southern Radicals. The attitude and conduct of the latter present one of those anomalies for which it is difficult to account, especially when it is remembered that the very men, who are urging ruin and degradation for their own neighbors, were chiefly instrumental in involving them in the difficulties by which they are surrounded. They had, almost without an exception, a prominent agency in exacerbating the public mind and bringing on the war,—they were the foremost denouncers of "Yankees" and of President Lincoln, for nearly three years after the war commenced,—they stigmatised the government as a "rank and bloody usurpation,"—they swore they would never be willing to live again under the "accursed old flag;"—and now they would "turn and rend" the very men whom they led or forced into what they now call "a wicked rebellion against the best government the world ever saw."

We repeat that it is gratifying that these men are properly guaged and measured by the intelligent Republicans of the North. The few Radical adventurers who come South to excite evil passions for the sake of personal gain, or from other motives, in no wise, we are warranted by the tone of the press in believing, reflect or represent the sentiment of the Northern masses. It is needless to say, what is so apparent every day and what is abundantly proven by their very excessive malignity, that these Southern Radicals are a set of political Pariahs as to nine-tenths of the white population of their own section,—justly receiving the scorn of their countrymen and fellow-citizens. Their only hope, in their isolated and desperate condition, is to wheedle the newly enfranchised colored race to their support, by the most inflammatory appeals to their passions and the most insidious allurements based on the prospect of confiscation, &c. They will yet fail even in this quarter; and then, like Milton's Satan, "miserable, whither shall" they "fly?" Apropos to this matter, the New York Herald says:

"As the contest goes on the lines dividing the future political parties of the South will begin to appear, and the tendencies of the negro vote. At present it seems to be drifting to the republican camp, and under some vague notion that confiscation is to crown the work of emancipation; but when this fallacy is dispelled, as it must be, the Southern negro will take a clearer view of his political policy, and will shape his course accordingly. Meantime it will be intensely interesting to watch the developments of this new political era in the South, and its reaction upon our political parties in the North."

The Boston Post thus concludes an article on the late Radical assemblage in Richmond, and its remarks apply with equal pertinency to the state of things in our own immediate midst:

"The condition of the South is such as to require, for the good of the whole country, forbearance, candor, encouragement. The zealots who excite strife that they may reap personal and party advantage, are moral and political traitors, and should receive punishment due hypocrites and promoters of dissension."

The New York Times (Republican) has the following reflections on the same subject, and they are such as commend themselves to the most serious consideration of all cool and thinking men, white or black:

"The confiscation resolutions adopted at the late meeting of negroes in Richmond prove the baneful effect of the political teaching which they receive from the Hunnicutts of the extreme Radical party. In the eye of every thoughtful man, confiscation admits of only one interpretation. It is the equivalent of general spoliation, bloodshed and anarchy. There can be no liberty without order, and no order without ample protection for the rights of property. Invade these rights, and inculcate the idea that one class shall be permitted to seize and enjoy the lands and houses of another class, and from that moment the South will become a second San Domingo, to end only in the extermination of whites or blacks. This may be a strong statement of the case, but it is the truth. And the men who go about familiarizing the negroes with the demand, and persuading them of its justice, should be dealt with by the military commanders as incendiaries."

NEW YORK ELECTIONS.—The election in New York, on Tuesday, was for one hundred and sixty delegates to a Convention to amend the Constitution of the State. The returns show a general apathy prevalent throughout the State,—not more than a one-third vote being polled. In the city of New York, less than 40,000 votes were cast. Of twenty delegates chosen by the city, nineteen are Democrats. Party lines were not drawn, however,—the Republicans having previously engineered the manner of conducting the election, through the Legislature, in such a way as to have the matter in their own hands. The New York Herald says:

"The Republicans must bear in mind the fact that under the mode selected by them for the election of delegates they command a large majority in the Convention; that they have thus voluntarily taken upon themselves the duty of framing the fundamental principles to be submitted to the test of the popular vote in November next, and that if they present to the people of the State an improper and objectionable work, the issue will be made against them as a party, as well as against the Constitution, for which they will be responsible, and that if it should fail, they will surely fall with it."

DON'T NEGLECT CORN.—We have heretofore admonished our people, by all means, in their anxiety to make cotton, to be sure not to forget the production of food sufficient for man and beast. Cotton has reached that point when it can no longer command the high prices which have prevailed. It is possible that the new crop may ordinarily demand 15 to 20 cents, provided Europe is not involved in war; but should that occur, which can hardly be averted more than a year longer, at farthest, it will be found that cotton will continue to be a drug for some time to come. Provisions are likely to be in demand at remunerating prices.

Let planters be sure to make corn, potatoes, peas, &c., and then cotton or tobacco for the surplus crop. The indications are favorable to the production of good crops of all kinds, and planters will find it to their advantage to cultivate a variety of articles.

"CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME."—The qualifications of white voters, in the State of New York, are that they shall be twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States for at least ten days, and residents of the State for a year, next preceding the election, of the county four months, and of the election district thirty days. Colored men, besides fulfilling these requirements, must have been citizens of the State for the last three years and be possessed of a freehold estate worth $250, over and above all debts and incumbrances charged thereon, and have paid taxes on the same.

In nearly all the other Northern States, the negro is not allowed to vote at all, either with or without educational or property qualifications. In view of these facts, we would suggest to those Radical emissaries who come South, for the purpose of exciting and inflaming the colored race, arraying them against their white brethren, and vaunting their own "philanthropy," that they have an ample field for their "disinterested" labors at home. Quack, "heal thyself!"

RELIEF FROM MISSOURI.—The Land We Love for May states that the sum of $10,000, contributed by the Southern Relief Association of St. Louis, for the relief of the destitute in North Carolina, has been distributed at points selected by Ex-Gov. Vance and to parties named by him. Gen. Hill says:

"The Governor and the Editor, recipients of this bounty, take this occasion, in the name of the suffering, to return their thanks to the generous donors. The relief it has afforded, is, doubtless, considerable, and many a prayer of thankfulness and praise will go up from our destitute homes, in behalf of those who have made charity doubly noble by accompanying it with those assurances of blessed sympathy, which strip misfortune of half its terrors and render calamity endurable."

MEMORIAL.—The Wilmington papers suggest that the first of May be observed in that city as a memorial day for our soldier-dead, and that, on thatday,the fair daughters of Wilmington repair to Oakdale and decorate the graves of the noble dead who sleep within the precincts of that lovely Cemetary.

The Association of Raleigh, a year ago, fixed upon the 10th of May,—the anniversary of the death of Jackson and of the formation of the Society,—as the day for a similar beautiful observance with each recurring year.

For the Sentinel.

OUR WILMINGTON LETTER.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—By your permission, I would like to answer, through the columns of your widely circulated journal, a question, which, if it is not now, will, at no distant day, be a matter of interest to the people of Raleigh.

In the editorial columns of the "The Episcopal Methodist," I found the following paragraph:

"The Presbyterians of Washington, N. C. have commenced rebuilding their church in that place, which was burnt during the war. What are the Methodists doing in rebuilding their's in the same unfortunate town?"

They are doing just what every prudent church, in all time past, has done before contracting for a church, viz: counting the cost and seeing what they can raise, that they build according to their means and not stain their untarnished piety by worshipping in a house consecrated to God, which belongs to a man of the world.

To obtain funds for this purpose, the Rev. John S. Long, Pastor of the church, has set out on a tour through our State, with the purpose of lecturing in all the towns and cities large enough to afford an audience.—He has lectured in Newbern, and in this city, eliciting in both places as high eulogies from the press as were ever received by any public speaker. Nor were these words of praise expressions of idle and unmeaning flattery. They were words of honor to one to whom the highest honor was richly due. It was our good fortune to hear these lectures, two in number—the one delivered on Thursday and the other on Saturday night last.

The first lecture, upon the Ethics of History, was a master piece of literature, abounding in faultless logic, the most fascinating excellences of rhetoric, and the soundest philosophy, and an exhibition of an amount of research and study very rarely to be observed in entertainments of a similar character. The style of the lecture was not a purely philosophical disquisition upon the principles of right government and national prosperity, but, in addition to the discussion of these fundamental principles of national prosperity, the speaker thrilled the audience constantly with illustrations of the truth of every position, by allusion to the nations of ancient and modern times. It may be said, without exaggeration, that Mr. Everett, in his grandest flights of eloquence, never surpassed in elegance, beauty and power, many periods contained in this lecture.

The second lecture upon Bishop Bascom was a perfect production of its kind. After showing the appropriateness of his theme, the speaker considered at length Mr. Bascom as an itinerant, as a scholar, and as a preacher. The speaker's description of Mr. Bascom's style of preaching was a most perfect daguerreotype. So analytical and complete was the lecture, that as each one went away he felt that he had a perfect miniature of the orator of the West painted indelibly upon his mind. One felt that if he should see Bishop Bascom, he would know him; if he should hear him speak, he would recognize him, so vivid was the portraiture which the orator presented of him. With all who listened to these lectures, there is but one opinion:—That they have never been surpassed by any literary entertainments ever offered this people.

Mr. Long, who, by a public ministry of two years in this city, won for himself the highest honor as a pulpit orator and worthy divine, goes from us carrying with him more of this people's love and richer awards to his merit, than he ever possessed before.

I said, in the beginning of this communication, that this subject would be of interest to the people of Raleigh at no distant day. This was predicated upon the purpose of Mr. Long to visit Raleigh and deliver this course of lectures as soon as he shall have spent a week in Fayetteville, whither he goes to-day. I bespeak for him in your city of culture and education that attendance upon these lectures which their merit so richly deserves. J. H. D.

April 23, 1867.

The account of the Radical Convention at Richmond, published in the Washington Chronicle, commences thus: "The spirit of old John Brown has at last captured Virginia!" And this is "the feast" to which the citizens of Virginia are invited!

The headquarters of the 40th Infantry will be established at Raleigh, N. C., and Col. N. A. Miles, 40th Infantry, will command his regiment in addition to the duties named in Paragraph VII. of this order.

* * * * * * *

Brevet Major General N. A. Miles, Colonel 40th Infantry, Assistant Commissioner of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned lands, for North Carolina.—Headquarters at Raleigh, N. C.

Commanding Officers will, as heretofore, in compliance with existing orders, extend all proper facilities and protection to the Officers and Agents of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, in the discharge of their duties.

Post Commanders, on the application of the Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner of the Bureau, will, in addition to their present duties, assume the duties of Sub-Assistant Commissioners of the Bureau, for the territory included within the limits of their Posts, respectively.

* * * * * * *

The sale of spirituous liquors by any persons to soldiers, sailors, or marines, in the service of the United States, is hereby prohibited; and any person so offending, procuring for, or giving away to, any soldier, sailor, or marine, any spirituous liquors, will be brought to trial before a military tribunal, and shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars nor less than fifty dollars, or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two months. Any person giving information of the violation of this order, shall, upon conviction of the person accused, be entitled to receive one-fourth of the fine imposed and collected.

Post Commanders will require Sheriffs, Deputy Sheriffs, Constables and the Police force within their commands to report to them any violation of military orders and arrest the guilty parties.

Post Commanders will exercise a supervision over all Magistrates, Sheriffs, Deputy Sheriffs, Constables and Police within their commands; and will, whenever necessary for the preservation of order and the efficient discharge of their duties, assume command of the Police force.

By command of MAJOR-GENERAL D. E. SICKLES.
J. W. CLOUS, Col. 38 Infantry,
A. D. C. and A. A. A. General.

DISFRANCHISEMENTS.—Attorney General Stanberry is engaged in preparing an opinion regarding the force of the disfranchising clauses of the reconstruction bill. It is claimed by parties in the South that the clause disqualifying State officers includes not only members of State governments, but parish, county, and district officers. Gen. Sheridan appealed to the Government for a construction of the law on this point, as he has experienced some trouble arising from a difference of opinion regarding it in the registration of voters in New Orleans.—Washington Dispatch to N. Y. Times.

PARDONS.—Nearly every day a few pardons are issued, principally to that class of individuals who come under the first and thirteenth exceptions of the proclamation, the petty officer, and twenty thousand dollar clauses, and a few are occasionally granted of a more important character.—Herald.

DOES IT MEAN ANYTHING?

The recent law of Congress, known as the "Sherman Reconstruction Bill," provides, among other things, that the States, when reconstructed, shall be admitted to representation in both Houses of Congress when they shall elect Senators and Representatives who can take the test oath of '1862. We had supposed that when Congress passed the act they meant what they said—that none would be admitted who could not subscribe to that oath. We had further supposed that those who were apparently so much elated at the passage of the bill would not countenance the election of any others. We had supposed they were actuated by an honest zeal for reconstruction upon an "unmistakeable loyal basis," and that they regarded that oath as affording the only "unmistakeable" test of loyalty. We did not think that their zeal in the cause of radicalism was intended to earn for themselves a dispensation from the disabilities of the law. Nor do we charge that now, but some things look as if such might be the case.

We notice in one of Col. Forney's "Occasional" letters to the Philadelphia Press, published in a late number of the Washington Chronicle, that he speaks of Gov. Holden and Mr. Pool, among others, as candidates for U. S. Senators in North Carolina. Can either of these gentlemen take the required oath? There is not a man in the State who cannot take it as honestly as Gov. Holden can, and very few who were opposed to secession that cannot take it as honestly as Mr. Pool can. What grounds have these gentlemen, or what grounds has Col. Forney to suppose—for he speaks approvingly of their being candidates,—that they will be admitted without taking the oath? Is Gov. Holden to be rewarded for his services in organizing a radical party in this State, and Mr Pool for that still-born "address to the people of North Carolina," by having the law dispensed with in their cases? It looks very much as if such might be the case. If this is not so, why is it that certain talented Unionists—men whose Unionism no one ever questioned, and who can take the oath,—are never mentioned by the "loyalists" in connection with these high offices. Why do they not bring forward the names of such men as B. F. Moore and I. G. Lash for Governor and United States Senator? Not because they doubt their loyalty—not because their Unionism is not of the purest type, but because they are high-minded, independent, patriotic men, who would not lend themselves to the purposes of a faction or a party.

But it may be that the object of Congress in placing so many under the ban in the South was to increase their party, under a belief that many of them would earn a removal of the disabilities in their cases by a course which, under other circumstances, they would never have taken.—Old North State.

EFFECT OF THE MILITARY BILL ON PRIVATE CORPORATIONS.—At an election of a Board of Directors of the Jackson and New Orleans railroad last week, the old board, of which Gen. Beauregard is president, was reelected. The stock held by the State of Louisiana and the city of New Orleans was not represented in the election, as the board decided that Gov. Wells, acting as Provisional Governor, and Mayor Heath, acting under military appointment, were not qualified to represent that interest. They represented about one hundred and fifty thousand shares, and if their votes had been counted, a board consisting of loyalists would have been elected. Gen. Grant is to be applied to with a petition that Gen. Sheridan shall be instructed to order a new election and authorize the counting of the rejected votes.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says: "The Democratic Central Committe have determined to organize a grand campaigning expedition through the Southern States during the coming summer, with a view of preparing in that quarter for the approaching Presidential election. The best speakers are to be put in the field, and there will be no want of funds."

Grateful for the flattering patronage with which we have heretofore been so kindly favored, we respectfully solicit an increased share of the patronage of the citizens of Raleigh and the surrounding country. Without specially gassing, we deem it sufficient to say, that our stock mostly embraces such articles as are usually found in Family Groceries. Most of our goods have been recently bought in New York and Baltimore, for cash, and we hope to be able to sell them on satisfactory terms. In addition to our stock of Groceress, &c., we have a fine lot of
HATS AND READY MADE CLOTHING
and a splendid lot of Confectioneries, consisting of PLAIN AND FANCY CANDIES, RAISINS, ORANGES, FIGS, NUTS AND BRANDY PEACHES, &c., all of which will be sold on reasonable terms.
We have also a fine lot of genuine Durham Smoking Tobacco, which we can implicitly recommend to "those who smoke." Please call and see us.
We will pay particular attention to all consignments of Produce and Merchandise entrusted to our care and will endeavor to sell at the best market prices. Consignments are respectfully solicited. By a prompt and close attention to business and fair dealing with all, we hope to merit and receive a share of public patronage.

MAYOR'S COURT.—David Williams, Co. K, 8th Infantry, drew his pistol on Zany Williams, in her own house, and threatened to kill her. Arrested and turned over to the military authorities.

John Carr, 8th. Infantry, and Nicholas Ackeman, 8th. Infantry, were arrested for being in the City without permission from the military authorities, and turned over.

Mary Thompson, colored, was arrested for disorderly conduct on the street, and lodged in the Guard House.

MAYOR'S NOTICE CONCERNING FIRE-ARMS. We invite attention to the announcement in our advertising columns, of his Honor Mayor Haywood, relative to the carrying of fire-arms, under the recent general order of the District Commander. We have had several enquiries from our country-friends as to the construction of the order, whether it prohibited hunting with fowling pieces, &c. It will be seen that it applies to the carrying of any kind of fire-arms, for any purpose, by any person, white or black, other than officers and soldiers of the army.

MISS MASON'S ORPHAN SCHOOL.—This noble school in Baltimore is in successful operation. Miss M. has six pupils from North Carolina, who are being educated out of the proceeds of the sale of her book, "The Southern Poems of the War." So says the Land We Love.

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 24, 1867.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners held this evening, were present: Wm. D. Haywood, Mayor; Messrs. R. H. Battle, D. L. Royster, J. J. Overby, James A. Moore, J. M. Betts, B. F. Cheatham, J. D. Royster and A. N. McKimmon, Commissioners.

Sundry accounts of City night watch amounting to $366,60, were allowed.

The following accounts were presented and allowed, viz:

W. D. Williams for timber	$107.40.
Gas Light Co.	4.
B. P. Williamson, & Co. for rope	30.23
Upchurch & Dodd for nails	17.00
Wm. Dancy for street work	5.
Joe Miller " "	6.75
Charles Cross "	3.25
J. B. Sugg for pump stocks	139.50

On motion of Mr. Battle, Ordered, that the Assistant Constable be instructed to employ ten hands to work on streets, and that he be authorized to purchase what tools he may require for the use of the city.

On motion of Mr. Overby, Ordered, that their wages shall not exceed $1.50 per day.

On motion of Mr. D. L. Royster, Ordered, that the President of the R. & G. R. R. Co. be notified to remove the Ware House standing in the street near Mr. James Litchford's residence.

On motion of Mr. Overby, Ordered, that Mr. E. Smith be notified to remove his Slaughter House without the limits of the city, and that he be allowed 60 days to do the same.

Mr. G. B. Thurston petitioned the Board to grant him an Auctioneer's license for 12 months. Granted.

On motion of Mr. Moore, the Constables and Police force were continued in force.

On motion of Mr. Moore, a Committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Betts, Overby, and McKimmon, to ascertain whether the seat of Mr. Sawyer, a Commissioner from the Western Ward, was vacated or not, and to report at next meeting.

Mr. McKimmon offered the following ordinance, which was adopted:

Be it ordained, That all Fishmongers be, and they are hereby required, to keep clean their stands on Market Square, and in the event that they or any other person deposit the entrails or brine of any fish on or near the Market or any public street, they shall be subject to a fine of $5 for each and every offence.

On motion of Mr. Moore, ordered that the Mayor be requested to notify the citizens to have their back houses and lots cleansed, at least once a month, or they will subject themselves to a fine for a neglect.

On motion of Mr. McKimmon, ordered that the Mayor be requested to publish Gen. Sickles' order in handbills and have them posted through the city, relative to citizens carrying fire-arms, &c.

The Board then adjourned.

J. J. CHRISTOPHERS, Clerk.

The late Confederate General Ripley has received an order from the French government for one hundred and fifty thousand breech-loaders of his patent.

STATE ITEMS.

—The Weekly Transcript is the title of a new paper just established at Elizabeth City, under the editorial auspices of Thomas B. Garner, Esq. It is well filled, and exhibits industry and energy. This is the only paper, we believe, in the Albemarle Congressional District.

—Warren Superior Court was in session the past week,—Judge Barnes presiding. The most important case tried was that of the State vs. Pearce, from Franklin, charged with the murder of Thomas Leigh, on the 25th of December, 1865. The case was removed from Franklin. Attorney General Rogers and the Hon. Thos. Bragg and W. K. Barham, Esq., appeared for the prosecution, and Messrs. B. F. Moore, J. J. Davis, W. F. Green, L. C. Edwards and W. A. Jenkins for the defence. The trial lasted two days and resulted in the acquittal of the accused.

—Gen. Henry A. Wise, it is stated, will deliver the annual address before the two Literary Societies of the University at the approaching Commencement.

—The negroes of Warrenton had a tournament on Easter. Was this another "rebel training?"

—The fourteenth annual meeting of the Medical Society of this State will be held at Tarboro, on Wednesday, the 15th. inst.

—The house and effects of Hilliard Dempsey, a colored man living in the vicinity of Weldon, were destroyed by fire on Monday last. An infant child in the house was burned to death. It seems that Hilliard's wife went into the field to burn brush, leaving several children at home. The house caught fire by some means, and the larger children, becoming frightened, ran out, leaving the infant, which was consumed.

—The citizens of Halifax gave the colored people of that town a complimentary dinner, on Saturday last, as a mark of appreciation of their services during the recent fire in that town.

—At the late term of the Iredell Superior Court, (Judge Gilliam presiding,) the case of Thomas Dula, and Ann Miller as an accomplice, came up for a new trial, on the charge of the murder of Laura Foster, all of Wilkes County, but was postponed for the want of important witnesses for the State.

—Alfred Foster, of Wilkes Co., committed suicide, some days ago, by hanging himself in his barn. No cause is assigned. Mr. F. had been several times a member of the Legislature.

—The Baptist State Convention meets in Wilmington on the 22nd of May.

—The colored people of Salisbury and vicinity had a grand pic nic last Monday. They were addressed, by invitation, by Maj. W. M. Robins, who gave them some excellent advice. Everything passed off creditably.

—The Newbern Journal of Commerce says that, "at a meeting of the Ladies' Memorial Association, held a short time since to discuss various plans for the construction of a vault in the plot granted the Association by the city authorities for the re-interment of such Confederate soldiers, as were buried in Cedar Grove and Greenwood cemeteries, it was resolved to select that offered by T. H. Allen, civil engineer, which was in substance as follows: An arched vault, 65 feet long, 9 feet in width, and 9 feet in length to the centre of the arch; the vault to run due North and South, with entrances at either end; to be built of the best quality of brick, and constructed in a workmanlike manner. The interior of the vault to contain a wide rack of several tiers, supported by iron pillars, running from end to end through the centre, upon which the coffins are to be laid; leaving a passage way on either side. The entire work to be below the ground, and sufficiently strong to sustain any weight of a monument or other exterior decoration."

EFFORTS TO PROCURE THE PARDON OF JEFF. DAVIS.

Paul Bagley, formerly a missionary to India and Japan, went to Fortress Monroe on the 19th inst., and spent Saturday and Sunday in conversation with Jefferson Davis. The object of his visit was to induce Mr. Davis to apply to the President for a pardon, in the obtaining of which he offered Mr. Davis his services. Mr. Bagley believed that if a regular application should be made by Mr. Davis, he could support it with a petition presenting such an array of influential names, a large proportion of them from the radical republican party, that the movement would be as successful as that made by him in the case of Gov. Vance, of North Carolina. Mr. Davis, however, declined accepting the proposition. He said to ask for pardon was a confession of guilt, and that such an application would prejudice his case at the trial, which he was given to understand was close at hand. Mr. Bagley, nothing daunted with the ill success he met at Fortress Monroe, arrived here to-day, and this afternoon called on the President to ascertain whether a pardon would be granted to Jefferson Davis without an application, if petitions were presented of a satisfactory character. It is understood that Mr. Bagley was equally unsuccessful at the White House. In the exercise of the pardoning power the President has been guided by an inflexible rule—never to grant a pardon on petitions, unless such petitions were accompanied by an application from the individual seeking the executive clemency.

The Attorney General's office has now on file a huge budget of petitions, signed by hundreds of people North and South, praying for the release and pardon of Jefferson Davis, all of which are of no avail, owing to the before mentioned rule.—Cor. N. Y. Herald.

An election for Mayor was held at Huntsville, Ala., a few days ago, at which the negroes voted. Their vote was enlisted, we were told, to elect an agent of the Freedmen's Bureau to the Mayoralty, but the expectation was sadly disappointed. Major Sloss was elected by a large majority. The colored votes were five to one against the agent.

Among the railroads whose pay for carrying the mail is to be applied to the payment of their indebtedness to the Government, the Sun names the Virginia and Tennessee, Wilmington and Weldon, Atlantic and North Carolina, Western North Carolina, Petersburg, Virginia Central, Orange and Alexandria, Alexandria, Loudon, and Hampshire, and Manassas Gap Railroad Companies.

Thursday Morning Dispatches.

MEXICAN BUTCHERY—NEW YORK ELECTIONS.

NEW YORK, April 24.

Private letters, confirmatory of the capture of Puebla, say that the Liberals killed all, from Lieutenants up.

Henry Ward Beecher was defeated in Brooklyn. But one Republican is elected from New York city. Scarcely a third of the people voted.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 24.

Official letters received at the Indian office describe Hancock's interview with the Cheyennes as unsatisfactory. The letters express apprehensions of a general Indian war.

San Francisco advices represent the crop prospects as flattering.

The Southern Famine Relief Commission has received an additional $10,000 in gold from California.

Gen. Sheridan has been authorized to draw on the Commission for five thousand dollars to relieve distress caused by the overflow.

CONSOLIDATION IN VIRGINIA.

LYNCHBURG, April 24.

The Virginia and Tennessee Railroad Directors have been in session here yesterday and to-day.—It is clearly ascertained that a suffici nt number of private stockholders will unite to resist the consolidation act as violative of their charter and vested rights. They are sustained by able counsel.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, April 24.

The aid to the chief of police has been discharged by order of Gen. Sheridan;—it is alleged for discouraging negroes from registering.

Mexican advices say that Vera Cruz is closely invested by the Liberals, seven thousand strong, commanded by Mendez and Lawegos. Intercourse between the city and country is cut off.—Starvation imminent. The city is being shelled.

The Levee fund is exhausted and the work will be discontinued, unless the planters are successful in raising funds from the Bankers and capitalists of New Orleans. There is no abatement of the waters.

GEN. POPE AND GOV. JENKINS.

AUGUSTA, April 24.

The following correspondence between Gen. Pope and Gov. Jenkins has taken place:

Gen. Pope asks Gov. Jenkins, if he had seen General Order No. 1, issued April 10th, in reference to organizing the State under the military bill, before he (Gov. Jenkins) issued the address to the people of Georgia, advising non-action until the question was decided by the Supreme Court.

Gov. Jenkins replies that he had supposed that he was exercising such freedom in expression of his opinion relative to public matters, as seems still accorded to citizens of the Republic, and did not imagine that it was abridged by the accident of the writer or speaker's holding office. In the future, he should do and say what he believed was required by duty and his oath of office. This the Governor hopes will not involve either conflict or controversy between them in the execution of their respective trusts, as he thinks it need not. Everything of this character he desires to avoid.

Gen. Pope says, in reply, that Gov. Jenkins' explanation is satisfactory, so far as the past is concerned. But, being sent to execute the laws of Congress, he will carry out the provisions of the military bill, which recognize the existing State governments as merely provisional,—the object being to allow these to continue for the administration of State laws, during the progress of reconstruction. Had Congress contemplated opposition from the civil authorities, it would have legislated the State governments out of existence. Gen. Pope requires that the civil machinery of the States shall not be perverted to frustrate the execution of the laws. Civil officers are required not to use their influence to prevent the people from submitting to and carrying out the laws of Congress.

After discussing the matter fully, he says that he will be compelled to remove all officers who, while in office, use their influence to prevent the execution of the laws, but hopes that harmonious relations may continue between the military and civil authorities.

SENATOR WILSON IN NORFOLK

NORFOLK, April 24.

Senator Wilson addressed a crowded audience, to-day, at Bell church, principally colored. He said that his Southern tour was not in the interest of any organization, and urged the supporting of the platform of the Richmond Convention. He had no doubt that Virginia would be carried by the Republicans.

Gov. Pierpont and several other speakers followed. Great enthusiasm prevailed.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

A NEWSPAPER OWNED BY COLORED MEN DENOUNCES NORTHERN ADVENTURERS.

The "Leader," a weekly paper owned and published in Charleston by a company of colored citizens, is out in an editorial this week, warning the colored men against the large number of Northern adventurers and office seekers now in the South. It says:

"They will stand by us so long as they can use us, and when they have no more axes to grind they will cast us aside. Defunct outcasts in the North, with not enough brains to give them prominence in that section of the country, they hasten South among the 'poor ignorant freedmen,' as they style them, to direct them in their 'duties to the Republican party,' and thus place themselves in the front as the representative men of the colored people. These men will hold their caucuses and call in a certain class of colored men, who they know do not represent the masses of the colored people, and whom they can use as stepping stones to power with a show of consistency, yet with deep intent to subserve their own selfish purposes. These same men, as if the colored men of the South are devoid of common sense, are constantly urging them not to place a certain class on their ticket, but to give place to those 'tried friends of long standing,' yet they never hint at the necessity and propriety of placing on their tickets men of their own complexion, reared among them, who have an interest in common with them, and whose only study is to promote the well being and happiness of their race and the whole country. Their efforts to divide the colored people in church, in school and in State, their pandering to caste and their diligence in fostering dissensions, have been the chief of their endeavors; their persistent efforts to crush out every effort which colored men have made, independent of their counsels or guidance, are too plain not to be seen."

FERTILIZERS

FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 225 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	56.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	30
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter embodied 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, we will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is oluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

THE PALACE OF SUNSET.

When the sun in his state dress dreat,
Like a shadow of God, floated down to the West
I saw a strange, beautiful palace arise,
On an island of light in the sapphire skies;
A palace of clouds! in a moment it grew
On an island of pearl, in an ocean of blue,
And spirits of twilight enticed me to stray
Through those cloud realms reared from the ruins of day.

To musical murmurs, the soft sunset air,
Like a golden winged angel, seemed calling me there,
And my fancy sped on, till it found a rare home—
A palace of jasper with emerald dome,
On a violet strand, by a wide azure flood;
And where this bright castle of sunset now stood,
Methought some stray seraph had broken a bar
From the gold gates of Eden, and left them ajar.

There were amethyst windows, whose framework seemed span
Of fire drawn out from the heart of the sun;
Columns as of amber, and fountains of light
Which threw up vast showers, so changingly bright,
That Hope might have stolen their exquisite sheen,
To weave in her girdle of rainbows, I ween,
And arches of glory grew over me there,
And the fountains of sunset shot up through the air.

While I looked from my cloud-pillared palace afar
I saw night let fall one vast, tremulous, star
On the calm brow of even, who then, in return
For the gem on her brow, and the dew in her urn,
Seemed draping the darkness and hiding its gloom
With the rose colored curtains which fell from her loom,
All bordered with purple and violet eyes,
Floating out like fringe from the veil of the skies.

And lo! far away, on the borders of night,
Rose a chain of cloud mountains, so wondrously bright,
They seemed built from those atoms of splendor that start
Through the depths of the diamond's crystalline heart,
When light, with magical touch, has revealed
The treasure of beams in its bosom concealed;
And torrents of azure, all graceful and proud
Swept noiselessly down from those mountains of cloud.

But, the tide of the darkness came on with its flood,
And broke o'er the strand where my frail palace stood,
While far in the distance the moon seemed to lave,
Like a silver-winged swan, in night's ebon wave
And then, like Atlantis, the isle of the blest,
Which, in olden time, sank neath the ocean to rest,
(Which now the blue waters in mystery shrouds,)
Dropped down in the darkness this Palace of Clouds.

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 3d, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall have been ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,
President of the Senate pro tem.

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

SEC. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 4th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowlege and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United states against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplementary to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district named by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such baliots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough, and extensive education, that can be found at any First-class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required.—In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages.—This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States.—Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.
